

CALL FOR PAPERS

CANADIAN SOCIETY OF PATRISTIC STUDIES

The Canadian Society of Patristic Studies will hold its annual meeting at the University of Regina, May 27–29, 2018 under the auspices of the Congress of the Humanities and Social Sciences. Papers are presented in English or French; time for presentation and discussion is 30 minutes. Papers on any theme relevant to patristic studies are invited. As the theme of this year's Congress is "Gathering Diversities," papers exploring this topic are also encouraged. Additionally, papers pertaining to any aspect of the reception of biblical texts by later Christian authors are solicited for a special session on reception history. Proposed titles, an abstract of approximately 100 words, and an indication of audio-visual requirements and accessibility requirements need to be submitted by January 31, 2018 by email to the programme coordinator, Lincoln H. Blumell (lincoln\_blumell@byu.edu). Please write "CSPS Proposal" in the subject line of your email.

Please note that for this Congress the University of Regina has generously agreed to fund 400 Graduate Student Travel Awards of up to $500.00 for graduate students presenting papers. Information about this funding can be accessed at:

<https://www.congress2018.ca/student-funding>

Lastly, students are invited to submit for the Student Essay Prize ($200.00 and a one year membership in the society). The essay must not have been published or presented elsewhere. To be eligible for the contest, one must be a registered student. Both graduate and undergraduate essays will be considered. For more information see: <http://ccsr.ca/csps/announcements.htm>

APPEL DE PROPOSITIONS

ASSOCIATION CANADIENNE DES ÉTUDES
PATRISTIQUES

L'Association canadienne des études patristiques tiendra sa réunion annuelle à l'Université Regina, mai 27–29, 2018 dans le cadre du Congrès des sciences humaines. Vous êtes invités à présenter, en français ou en anglais, une courte proposition suivie d'une discussion, le tout réparti sur une période de 30 minutes. Nous accueillons les propositions sur n'importe quel thème patristique. La Fédération canadienne des sciences humaines encourage des propositions qui explorent le thème du Congrès de cette année « Rassembler les diversités, » mais nous accueillons les propositions sur toutes les matières concernant notre domaine. En outre, des propositions concernant tout aspect de la réception de textes bibliques par des auteurs chrétiens ultérieurs sont sollicités pour une session spéciale sur l'histoire de la réception. On devra faire parvenir, au plus tard le 31 janvier 2018, le titre de la proposition, un résumé d'une centaine de mots et une indication de tout besoin technique éventuel (équipement informatique ou audiovisuel) ou tout besoin d'accessibilité au responsable du programme, Lincoln H. Blumell (lincoln\_blumell@byu.edu). Veuillez indiquer « Proposition ACEP » dans le sujet de votre courriel.

Veuillez noter que pour ce congrès, l'Université de Regina a généreusement accepté de financer 400 bourses de voyage d'une valeur maximale de 500 $ pour les étudiants diplômés qui présenteront des propositions. Vous pouvez obtenir de l'information sur ce financement à l'adresse suivante:

<https://www.congres2018.ca/financement-etudiant>

Dernièrement, les étudiants sont invités à soumettre leur essai pour le Prix d'essai étudiant (200 $ et un abonnement d'un an dans la société). L'essai ne doit pas avoir été publié ou présenté ailleurs. Pour être admissible au concours, il faut être un étudiant inscrit. Des dissertations de premier et de deuxième cycle seront considérées. Pour plus d'information, voyez:

CALL FOR PAPERS PATRISTICA 6

Japanese Society for Patristic Studies (JSPS) is pleased to announce the publication of its sixth biennial issue, Patristica supplementary volume.

Patristica is an international peer-reviewed scholarly journal, devoted to the study of patristic authors and related fields. Since the first volume was published in June of 2001, this journal has been featuring high-quality research from a variety of disciplines and perspectives, including language, literature, history, art, law, philology, philosophy and theology of ancient Christianity.

To be considered for publication in the next volume of Patristica, manuscripts should be submitted to the JSPS Patristica editor, Naoki Kamimura (kmmrnk@gmail.com), by 30 April 2018.

Language of publication: Manuscripts (both research papers and book reviews) can be submitted in English.

Length of papers and reviews: Research papers should have a minimum of 6,000 words and should not exceed 12,000 words. The papers should include an abstract made of no more than 250 words and 4-6 keywords. The book reviews should have a minimum of 2,000 words and should not exceed 4,000 words. No abstract is required for the author of book reviews.

All manuscripts must follow the style of the latest issue of Patristica. Authors are suggested to contact the editor in order to check the examples of the Patristica as a guide to cite and reference.
